

DESIGN

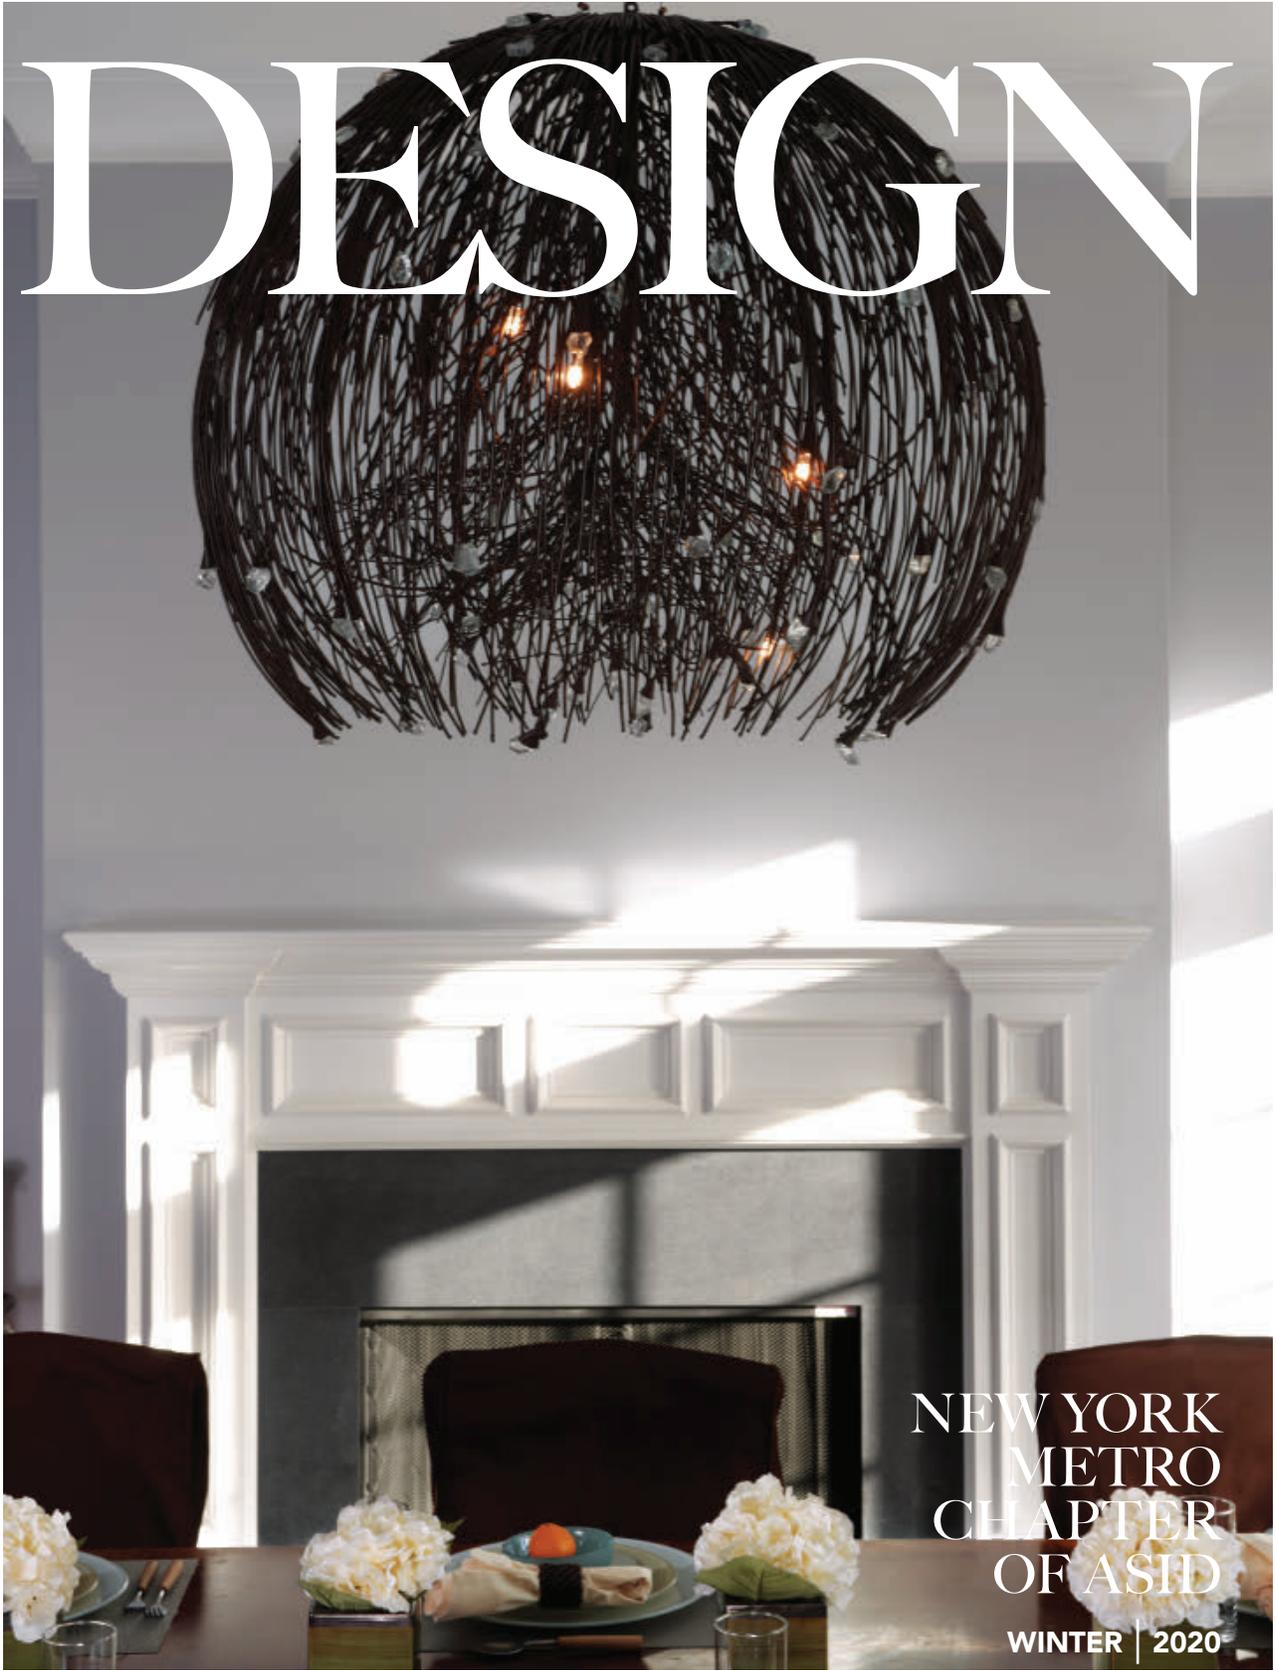

ASID NEW YORK METRO

DESIGN Magazine

WINTER 2020

NEW YORK
METRO
CHAPTER OF ASID

WINTER | 2020

Meet Your New Board Members

Cintia De Sena Dixon

Cintia De Sena Dixon is a dedicated leader, team player and goal chaser. She is resourceful, using her expert knowledge of the financial industry and great passion for interior design to succeed in her current career role. She brings 11-plus years of experience in the financial industry, working as a detailed and results-driven financial professional with expertise in revenue generation, delivering bottom-line results and maintaining organizational standards. In her career years in the financial industry, she played numerous leadership, management, and administrative roles, leaving her with incredible individual and professional qualities.

Known for an innovative prowess and analytical approach, Cintia brings an enviable portfolio of career achievements and irresistible highlights. Cintia was selected for the Citibank Client Financial Analyst Rotational Program, grooming high-potential individuals for positions selling a variety of investments products to new and existing clients. She was also ranked #1 in July 2017 and 2018 for net balance growth among the 40 regional relationship managers for leveraging existing client base, maximizing cross-selling opportunities and sourcing new clients. Furthermore, she generated approximately $3 million in business as a result of establishing rapport with international clients, suggesting a sales product and translating information between the client and company representative.

Joan Ravasy

Joan Ravasy, Founder of Ravasy Design LLC, creates curated luxury, intentional and thoughtful residential interiors for her clients in NJ, NYC and Florida. She combines client collections, new elements and inspiring found pieces to reflect a living space in which clients feel comfortable and relaxed, while fulfilling the owners' needs. A clean, modern urbane aesthetic, blended with classical shapes and textures is her core project concept, and as a result, the firm's clients embrace their completed environment with comfort, heritage and authenticity while the firm strives to have clients own their look in the process.

A member of ASID since a design student, and a graduate of fine arts at Kean University, Joan has long embraced her professional membership and strong advocacy of ASID. She also values the organization as family. Prior to creating Ravasy Design, she worked at Bloomingdales as director of design in NJ and NYC serving with Marvin Traub and Carl Levine, legends in the home furnishings industry. She has served on numerous ASID boards, committees, attended ASID Platform and was past president of the NJ Chapter. Her involvement with KBIS, VFTI, LG Signature Kitchen Suite and Baldwin Design Council has forged new relationships in those industries. Joan continues her leadership role as director of membership and is honored to be among great talent, dedicated volunteers and extraordinary resources.

Katharine McGowan

Katharine Posillico McGowan is principal of Katharine Jessica Interior Design, LLC, and she has been involved in the design world for over 20 years. After graduating from Lehigh University in 1990, Katharine began developing her keen eye for unique style and function, later studying at the New York School of Interior Design and launching Katharine Jessica Interior Design in 2003.

Her work has been featured in many regional and national publications including New York Spaces magazine where she was recognized as one of the "10 New Designers Under 40 to Watch." She has also been featured in multiple Mansions & Millionaires Designer Showcases and received magazine's the "Notable Designer" distinction, and she was recognized by Newsday as one of its "All-Star Designers—Class of 2015."

Katharine is very involved in the Long Island community and contributes to a variety of charities—serving on the Family Service League Board of Directors, where she serves as vice-chair of development. She is also the co-chair of the Whit Walk raising awareness and funds for childhood cancer research benefitting The Memorial Sloan Kettering Foundation. Katharine has donated her time and design talent to benefit The Ronald McDonald House of LI, Southampton Hospital, American Heart Association and Mill Neck School for the Deaf.